Copyright Paul Lanagan © 1996

This piece was created with colouring pencils and a drawing pen, circa 1996. It was based on artwork and/or animation produced for the Cadbury's sponsorship idents which punctuated each episode of Coronation Street between 1994 and 2007. If set on Coronation Street, this house appears to have lost its bay window! The original drawing is roughly a quarter the size of a postcard.
